The Queensland Shooting Club

The Queensland Shooting Club (QSC) is suitable for members who are not competing or regularly shooting but still wish to maintain membership of an approved rifle club. QSC members are not eligible for NRAA Competitions.

Queensland Shooting Club insurance cover only applies when shooting on approved QRA ranges.

Obtaining a Firearms Licence

Please note: These are general steps only. Additional steps will apply to some licence types. Refer to the Qld Police Service (QPS) Weapons Licensing Branch for all licensing enquiries: Ph. 07 3015 7777

<https://www.police.qld.gov.au/units/weapons-licensing>

Ensure you are eligible to apply:
 refer to Qld Police Service (QPS) for eligibility criteria.

Select an appropriate licence and genuine reason.
 You can join an approved club and nominate this as your genuine reason to hold a Licence on your application form. Refer to QPS for accepted genuine reasons.

Complete the VET Approved Firearms Licence Safety Training Course with a registered instructor.

The Queensland Rifle Association runs a VET approved Course in Firearms Safety. Upon successful completion you will be issued with a Statement of Attainment which is valid for a licence application for 12 months.

Bookings essential. Ph. 07 3398 4309

Complete & lodge Weapons Licence Application Forms.
Applications can be lodged on-line via the QPS Weapons Licensing Branch website. Documentation for the licence application includes: Firearms Safety Course Statement of Attainment; proof of club membership; evidence of identity. Fees for the application and licence are on the QPS website. If you are not lodging an on-line application, download the forms required from www.police.qld.gov.au/programs/weaponsLicensing/ or obtain forms from your local Queensland Police Service station.
